“MASKS”

Exhibition Dates: August 13 thru September 9, 2022

Masks are used for protection, disguises, rituals and entertainment. In 7000 B.C. masks were used to communicate messages and have been found and used in cultures and countries through out the world. For this exhibit we are looking for full face masks, fun, funny, furry and even a bit scary or perhaps you have a message to convey. Three dimensional work is encouraged for this exhibition.
